

國立高雄餐旅大學附屬餐旅高級中學

104 學年度教師甄選 英文科試題

【※答案一律寫在答案本上】

I. Multiple Choices (14%)

1. We should be discriminating when taking notes on information presented in the chapter.
(A) alert (B) informed (C) selective (D) thorough
2. The brevity of the show made it possible for even the youngest children to sit through it.
(A) cleverness (B) shortness (C) length (D) clearance
3. After you are done with your reading, please decide on the main idea the author is trying to convey.
(A) get across (B) bring about (C) put away (D) come across
4. Today, the teacher will train and assist you. ____, you'll be on your own.
(A) Simultaneously (B) Nevertheless (C) Subsequently (D) Realistically
5. Mandy was ____ when she stood on the edge of cliff, attempting to make her first bungee jumping.
(A) venerable (B) mundane (C) opulent (D) petrified
6. Some high teachers and students have a ____ about the Ministry of Education's high-school curriculum adjustments, and even rally against it.
(A) tenacity (B) swivel (C) premium (D) qualm
7. Angela's ____ when making a simple decision annoys her husband. They often have a fight over that.
(A) resurgence (B) vacillation (C) inauguration (D) deployment
8. It was not known how the suspect that left two dead in a knife attack at an Ikea store in Sweden ____ his injuries.
(A) dispersed (B) endowed (C) compelled (D) sustained
9. Early this year, Taiwan was in the ____ of a record-breaking drought and had to launch water rationing in some major cities.
(A) throes (B) staples (C) leagues (D) arrays

10. Despite attempts at _____ soon after the gas-explosion accident, ten of the victims still died a couple of weeks later in hospital.
(A) escalation (B) perspiration (C) resuscitation (D) resurrection
11. Founders of the company announced the reorganization of the business structure would allow them more time to continue to _____ their aspirations.
(A) strut (B) peruse (C) counter (D) scale
12. _____ a jazz musician masters the basic techniques, she or he may use them to freely improvise during a performance.
(A) Because (B) Once (C) While (D) As far as
13. The parallax measurement is used in a survey studies to tell how far away _____.
(A) is an object distant (B) distant is an object
(C) an object is distant (D) a distant object is
14. Accustomed to climbing trees, _____.
(A) reaching to top was not hard to me. (B) the top was not difficult for me to reach
(C) I had no difficulty reaching the top (D) to reach the top was not a problem for me

II. Discourse (16%)

Rice balls with folded plastic wrappers separating the rice from the seaweed; a dozen kinds of cold tea in a dozen different bottles—enter any convenience store in Japan, and you're immediately struck by the great variety and quality of the packaging!

_____ 1 _____ 2 _____ 3 What's more, compared with Westerners, the Japanese are more connected with packaging as a symbol of appreciation, love and care. _____ 4 _____ 5 _____ 6 _____ 7 _____ 8 In this changing industry, nothing is really certain except one thing. You can be sure that the goods out there on display on the shelves of the convenience store will soon be looking rather different.

- (A) Packaging has, therefore, attained an important place in Japan's economy.
(B) The product has to speak to the consumer's needs with both personality and practical value.
(C) The Japanese tend to use more packaging because of a cultural emphasis on freshness and a lack of storage space at home.
(D) New packaging is introduced to Japanese store shelves at a rate of 20 percent per year, the highest rate in the world.
(E) Japanese companies have been accused of over-packaging; but within the Japanese cultural context, that's not really true.

- (F) The packaging market is worth over ¥7.4 trillion.
- (G) In such an environment, a product has to have more than just a nice graphic design to differentiate it from its shelf-mates.
- (H) Moreover, they believe nice packaging adds value because it's a strong signal of quality.

III. Translation : Translate the following passage into Chinese. (10%)

ABC Institute has built an unmatched legacy of leadership by concentrating on the crucial issues that shape the ever-changing foodservice and hospitality industry. Billed as the country's premier culinary institute, this school offers not only bachelor's degrees but also master's degrees in such areas as culinary science, baking and pastry arts management and restaurant management. Our programs are good for anyone that has a strong passion for food—from students endeavoring to become the next Wu Pao-chun to professionals seeking further training to advance their skills. ABC Institute is definitely the best place to round out your education and enrich your knowledge of culinary arts.

IV. Test Design (20%)

Write a cloze test passage of 200-250 words by using the five words/phrases given. The answers must be the given words/phrases.

- (1) for another thing (2) even if (3) far from (4) shortly (5) dedicated

V. Nowadays, in order to enhance students' abilities, a great number of high school teachers use extra materials in addition to textbooks. What will you choose for your students and what's your consideration? (10%) What will you do with the material/these materials?(10%)

VI. Essay (20%)

1. Define Project-Based Learning (PBL). Elaborate a PBL activity that you once incorporated in your English class. If you had never conducted any PBL activity, design one and elaborate it.

2. As an English teacher, how do you guide your students to write a composition for the following test.

說明：1.依提示在「答案卷」上寫一篇英文作文。

2.文長至少120個單詞（words）。

提示：下面兩本書是學校建議的暑假閱讀書籍，請依書名想想看該書的內容，並思考你會選擇哪一本書閱讀，為什麼？請在第一段說明你會選哪一本書及你認為該書的內容大概會是什麼，第二段提出你選擇該書的理由。

