

Curriculum Design in Early Childhood Education 幼稚園課程設計

Instructor: Su-Chiao Wu|

Course Description:

This course introduces different theoretical foundations of curriculum design, the features of various curriculum model, multicultural curriculum activities, materials and environments for young children. Applying curriculum design principles into teaching activities planning to create suitable experiences for young child is also emphasized. The class provides the opportunity for students to use various media to for expression and exploration of curriculum design.