

Guidelines for International Undergraduate Student Scholarship of National Chiayi University

Amended by the Meeting of the Administrative Committee, May 06, 2014

Article 1 National Chiayi University (hereafter NCYU or the University) in an effort to encourage outstanding international undergraduate students study at the University to enhance international competitiveness has formulated this guideline.

Article 2 The financial sources of the NCYU International Student Scholarship (hereafter the Scholarship) include subsidies from the Ministry of Education, donations and partial revenue of university tuition.

Article 3 Eligibility

a. Foreign applicants must be full-time students who registered in the University according to “NCYU Regulations for Foreign Student Admission” and have studied for one semester with a formal student status.

b. For undergraduate students who have received conduct evaluation result of 85 or above, and completed a period of one semester of study with at least 9 credits, and earned the minimum average score of 70 or above.

Article 4 Application Procedure

Qualified applicants should submit the application form (see the attachment), transcripts, one recommendation letter to the Office of International Affairs within one month after the semester starts.

Article 5 The scholarship is granted to one awardee per college after the candidate’s application being preliminary reviewed by corresponding college. A final decision will be made by the International Student Scholarship Review Committee.

Article 6 The scholarship is granted to each recipient NT30,000 per semester.

Article Scholarship awardees may not receive any other full scholarships.
7 If scholarship awardees are confirmed to be receiving more than one full scholarship, the scholarship will be terminated immediately, and the amount received in violation of the above code will be reclaimed.

Article Related issues not specified in the Guidelines are subject to the 8 related regulations.

Article This guidelines comes into effect upon the approval of the 9 Administrative Committee, and with approval of the University's President.