2027 Presidential Science Prize of Taiwan

Instructions to Service of the Nomination Information

Please submit the nomination information in electronic format to the Presidential Science Prize (PSP) Committee's email address (psp@nstc.gov.tw) during the acceptance period as published (from now until February 26, 2027). Failure to submit the information within the acceptance period or incomplete submission will result in the rejection of the nomination.

I. The nominator shall submit the following nomination information:

1. Nomination form in Chinese and English (please provide a signed or stamped PDF version of the nomination letter; to help the examining procedure, please also provide the Chinese/English nomination form in MSWORD format).
2. Representative publications of the nominee (3 to 5 publications) in Chinese or English. The original copies of the publications for which no electronic files are available shall be send to the PSP Committee: No. 106, Sec. 2, Heping E. Rd., Da'an Dist., Taipei City, Taiwan.
3. A brief biographical profile describing the nominee's background, education, and professional experiences.

II. The recommenders (local or foreign scholars other than the nominator) shall submit the nomination information:

3 to 5 letters of recommendations in support of the nominee shall be sent by the recommenders via email directly. The nominator must inform the recommenders to send the letters of recommendation within the acceptance period.

III. Additional Notes on Submission:

1. The PSP Committee's email has a capacity limit of 100MB. If it is impossible to send the email, please check the email size or send the documents in a Zip file.
2. To confirm receipt of the submitted materials, please look out for a confirmation email from the PSP Committee after submission. If you do not receive a confirmation, please contact the Committee by telephone during the application period to confirm receipt.
